

ASAP FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How long will I be under ASAP supervision?

You will be under ASAP supervision for the entire term the court imposes which varies from case to case.

Is ASAP a 10-week class only?

No, while a 10-week education class may be one required component of ASAP probation, supervision monitoring, ignition interlock monitoring, substance abuse treatment (if required) and any special conditions ordered by the court may apply.

Can I transfer to another ASAP?

Yes, under certain circumstances you may be able to transfer to another ASAP. You will need to contact your ASAP case manager for this request.

Can I bring family or friends with me to the ASAP classes?

No, family members and friends are not permitted in the ASAP class.

What happens if I miss an ASAP class?

ASAP class attendance is mandatory. Your case manager will provide information to you regarding missed classes.

Can I drive to a gas station or grocery store?

The DC261 provides information on the approved destination restrictions. Please refer to this document.

Does the ASAP select the ignition interlock vendor for me?

No, you are responsible for selecting the ignition interlock vendor from the state approved vendor list.

Can I drive before I get the ignition interlock installed?

No, you must have the ignition interlock installed before you can drive anywhere.

Who tells the DMV when I complete the ASAP?

The ASAP will electronically enter completion into the DMV system once all ASAP requirements have been met.

Will all my ASAP fees have to be paid before I can get my license?

Yes, all your ASAP fees will have to be paid in full before you can get a license. The DMV will not issue you a driver's license until completion has been entered in the DMV system by the local ASAP.